2D SESSION

H. RES. 1196

Calling for an end to escalating violence in the Nagorno-Karabakh enclave, for each side to return to the peace process, and for external parties to cease their support for and interference in the conflict.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 16, 2020

Mr. KEATING submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Calling for an end to escalating violence in the Nagorno-Karabakh enclave, for each side to return to the peace process, and for external parties to cease their support for and interference in the conflict.

Whereas, on September 27, 2020, the most significant outbreak of violence since the signing of the 1994 cease-fire agreement began across the line of contact in Nagorno-Karabakh between Armenian and Azerbaijani forces;

Whereas military operations by each side have included the exchange of air strikes, rocket attacks, and artillery fire, resulting in the deaths of soldiers and civilians, the wounding of hundreds more, and causing needless suffering to families and communities in the conflict zone;

Whereas both Armenia and Azerbaijan have declared martial law, mobilized their armed forces, and called up reserve forces, further escalating tensions;

Whereas the conflict has the potential to escalate into proxy warfare among regional powers, including Turkey and Russia, which would further entrench the conflict, increase risk of civilian harm, and threaten long-term peace and stability in the region;

Whereas Russia maintains close economic ties to both Armenia and Azerbaijan and provides weapons, other support, and military guarantees to Armenia, which is a member of the Russian-led Collective Security Treaty Organization (CSTO);

Whereas the United States serves as a neutral co-chair of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE) Minsk Group, along with France and Russia, and the Presidents of the Co-Chair countries have urged the parties to return to a ceasefire and substantive negotiations as soon as possible;

Whereas the United States remains committed to working with each side through the OSCE Minsk Group to settle the conflict peacefully and sustainably;

Whereas both Azerbaijan and Armenia are North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Partnership for Peace countries, which made a commitment to increase stability, diminish threats to peace, and build strengthened security relationships among NATO and non-member countries in the Euro-Atlantic area; and

Whereas a long-standing conflict like the one between Armenia and Azerbaijan must be solved through a political process rather than military aggression: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) expresses alarm at the escalating violence
3 that has resulted in the tragic loss of life in 4 Nagorno-Karabakh;

5 (2) calls on leaders in Armenia and Azerbaijan
6 to immediately de-escalate the situation, end hos-
7 tilities, utilize the Organization for Security and Co-
8 operation in Europe (OSCE) Minsk Group process
9 instead of military means and return to the cease-
10 fire agreement along the line of contact between 11 Nagorno-Karabakh and Azerbaijan, and protect the 12 human rights of those in the area in order to pre-
13 vent even further loss of life;

14 (3) calls on each country to renew its commit-
15 ment to the OSCE Minsk Group process and recog-
16 nize that dialogue, not violence, is the only way to 17 bring a comprehensive and enduring peace to the re-
18 gion;

19 (4) reaffirms United States support for OSCE
20 Minsk Group efforts to secure an agreement from 21 Armenia and Azerbaijan to cease offensive military
22 operations in Nagorno-Karabakh and to accept inde-
23 pendent third-party monitoring along the line of con-
24 tact; and

1 (5) calls on all external parties to refrain from
2 providing military and other support to either side,
3 which merely inflames hostilities and further jeop-
4 ardizes regional peace and stability, including the re-
5 cent destabilizing rhetoric of President Tayyip
6 Erdoğan and the Turkish military.
